Take the Stage at the CLO Academy!

REGISTER TODAY!

No other performing arts school in Pittsburgh can shine the spotlight on young talent like the Pittsburgh CLO Academy of Musical Theater! The CLO Academy provides every student with the opportunity to train with the region's finest arts educators and offers students the chance to audition for Pittsburgh CLO's professional productions at the Byham Theater and Benedum Center.

Last summer, students took center stage at the Benedum Center in critically-acclaimed productions of Annie and Fiddler on the Roof. This December five CLO Academy students will also be featured in our annual production of A Musical Christmas Carol at the Byham Theater.

Visit our Spring Open House on Sunday, January 6 from 12pm-2pm for an exciting sneak peek at the CLO Academy.

Through a series of sketches and songs, this show explores our Constitution and Civil rights. Everyday life is showcased in both funny and touching vignettes, offering a variety of moods as it explores the deeper meanings of the language of the Constitution. Tributes to the military, freedom songs and a celebration of Martin Luther King Jr.'s famous speech, "I Have a Dream," all become part of this patchwork quilt of American life.
