Constitut

1. What does the Constitution have 4,400 of?

- a. Commas
- b. Words
- c. Letters

FUN FACT:

At 4,400 of these, the Constitution is the shortest written Constitution of any country in the world. It is also the oldest Constitution.

2. Where is the Constitution displayed?

- a. In the National Archives building in Washington D.C.
- b. In the White House
- c. In the Statue of Liberty

FUN FACT:

The Constitution is stored behind protective glass framed with titanium and is kept at 67 degrees F with 40% humidity.

3. Why is Constitution Day celebrated on September 17?

- a. It was George Washington's birthday
- b. The framers of the Constitution signed the document on September 17, 1787.
- c. The framers decided to break away from England on September 17, 1782.

FUN FACT:

Although signed by the framers on this day, the Constitution was not ratified by the necessary 9 states until 1788.

4. What amendment ended slavery in 1865?

- a. The 13th amendment
- b. The 14th amendment
- c. The 10th amendment

FUN FACT:

Between 1804 and 1865 there were no changes made; this amendment also ended the longest period in history without changes to the Constitution.

5. What was the first state to ratify the Constitution?

- a. California
- b. Virginia
- c. Delaware

FUN FACT:

This state's motto is "The First State." It was ratified on December 7, 1787 and is therefore the first state admitted to the Union. For this reason, this state comes first of all states for events and parades, such as Presidential Inaugurations.

6. How many states were represented at the Constitutional Convention?

- a. 12 states
- b. 11 states
- c. 50 states

FUN FACT:

13 states existed, including Delaware, Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Georgia, Connecticut, Massachusetts, Maryland, South Carolina, New Hampshire, Virginia, New York, North Carolina and Rhode Island. Rhode Island did not send delegates to the convention and was the last state to ratify.

ion Trivia

7. How many amendments make up the Bill of Rights?

- a. 10
- b. 11
- c. 8

FUN FACT:

Concerned that the Constitution outlined what the government could do, but not what it could not do, the framers created a list of individual rights – “unalienable rights” – and amended the Constitution with the Bill of Rights.

8. How many amendments are there to the Constitution?

- a. 10
- b. 33
- c. 27

FUN FACT:

More than 11,000 amendments have been introduced in Congress. 33 have gone to the states to be ratified and 27 have received the necessary approval from the states to actually become amendments to the Constitution.

9. Name the two houses of our legislature.

- a. The United States House of Representatives and The White House
- b. The United States House of Representatives and The United States Senate
- c. The United States House of Representatives and The United Judicial House

FUN FACT:

Members of the Senate originally wanted to address the President as “His Highness the President of the United States of America and Protector of their Liberties.” The House agreed to a compromise of “The President of the United States of America.”

10. What did the 18th amendment do?

- a. Prohibited the sale, importation and distribution of firearms into the United States of America (1919).
- b. Prohibited the manufacture, sale, importation, exportation, and transportation of intoxicating liquors into the United States of America (1919).
- c. Prohibited the sale of any iPods or Xboxes over state lines.

FUN FACT:

This is the only amendment to later be amended by another (the 21st amendment in 1933 repeals the federal amendment and give states jurisdiction over the use and transportation of alcohol). “The transportation or importation into any State, Territory, or possession of the United States for delivery or use therein of intoxicating liquors, in violation of the laws thereof, is hereby prohibited.”

11. Which amendment set the voting age at 18?

- a. The 26th amendment
- b. The 10th amendment
- c. The 18th amendment

FUN FACT:

Within 107 days of its proposal in Congress, this amendment was ratified by the necessary number of states, making it the amendment with the shortest ratification process.
