

Have you registered yet?

Jump online at pittsburghclo.org to make sure you reserve your spot in our most popular classes, like MT Dance Styles!

Wondering what's new at CLO Academy for 2009-2010? We're very excited to announce these additions to Pittsburgh's finest musical theater school:

Student School - Musical Theater Package 3

An additional level in the Student School!

Acting: Audition Monologues

An advanced class for high school students preparing for college auditions.

MT Production

A performance opportunity for high school students in the First Semester. Read more below!

Classes begin Monday, August 31!
Register online at pittsburghCLO.org

Close up on: MT Production

We had a blast with the All-Academy Musical in May, but we know that's not always the best time of year for high school students, especially those involved with their own high school musicals.

This year, we're looking forward to the start of a brand new class for students in grades 9 - 12, MT Production. Faculty members Stephen Totter, Jason Shavers, Kristiann Josephs and Melissa Yanchak will work with students on a full musical production to be performed in December. PPI participants voted this summer on suggestions for the show. Watch our Facebook page for the upcoming announcement of what we chose!

What's New Online in '09

By now you've probably checked out the Pittsburgh CLO Academy Facebook page - and if not, follow this link to do so now!

We're sharing all of our favorite behind-the-scenes photos and videos there.

Over at pittsburghclo.org, you'll find a number of new resources, like the Student Welcome Pack and Driving Directions available for download.