

2nd Semester is Filled with Exciting Opportunities !

There's so much we're looking forward to this semester, like the All-Academy Musical production of Grease and the auditions for childrens' roles in Oliver! - more on those below - but one of the most exciting opportunities is right around the corner.

Join us Friday, February 5 from 4pm to 6pm for an exclusive Master Class with Elise Santora from the Original Broadway Cast of In the Heights. Elise played the roles of Conchita and Cinderella's Mother in Pittsburgh CLO's Copacobana and Into the Woods last summer, and she is now on tour with In the Heights. She has graciously set aside two full hours for a master class for students ages 10 and up. Learn original choreography from this Tony-award winning show!

The cost is $50 per person. You do not need to be an Academy student to attend, so invite your friends to join you! Registration is available online at pittsburghclo.org or see Jen for a form. We anticipate this class will fill up quickly, so register today!

Spotlight: Gallery of Heroes

This spring, over 120 schools all around Western Pennsylvania will welcome Pittsburgh CLO's Gallery of Heroes program into their auditoriums for the fully staged musical Pioneers of Flight. Written by Jason Coll and directed by Kiesha Lalama-White, Pioneers of Flight tells the story of aviation's most innovative historical figures, including the Wright Brothers, Bessie Coleman, Amelia Earhart and Charles Lindbergh.

Rejoining the Gallery of Heroes cast this year are Academy faculty members Jason Shavers and Jim Scriven. Limited space is still available to bring Pioneers of Flight to your school. Please call Patty at 412-325-6459 to learn more about the Gallery of Heroes program, or visit our website at pittsburghCLO.org
