THE KARA CABARET SERIES IN HONOR OF MICHAEL AND DOLORES KARA

In recognition of a generous gift from Dolores Kara in honor of her late husband Michael, Pittsburgh CLO proudly presents the Pittsburgh CLO Kara Cabaret Series.

Dolores and Michael were married in 1999 and have been steadfast advocates for several non-profit organizations in Pittsburgh and in Boca Raton, Florida. Dolores and Michael have made a significant impact on many individuals and organizations through their work in the community. Among their many activities and interests, the Karas share a long-time love of live musical theater.

Joyfully active in the community, Michael Kara was known by many and loved by all. He lived 86 full years with a warm, compassionate smile and a helping hand. So unassuming yet so willing to make an impact and assist those in need, his legacy is one to which we all should aspire.

MICHAEL AND DOLORES KARA

Hello!

It is with pure excitement that I welcome you to the WORLD PREMIERE of this rom-com musical of the future! Born from the Pittsburgh CLO's SPARK Festival in 2018, THE PERFECT MATE is the "perfect" culmination of a remarkable journey that originated as a seed of creativity and a concept reading, sown through the support of the Pittsburgh CLO through numerous writer residencies and workshops, and has now blossomed into a full-scale production.

The SPARK Festival was a major initiative of the Pittsburgh CLO's Next Generation Capital Campaign. SPARK was created as an effort to promote PCLO's mission to cultivate new and innovative work emerging and established musical from theater artists. Writing teams joined SPARK for festival residencies; these unique residencies offered valuable rehearsal time and dramaturgical support to shows early in the development process. They also served as a first step towards future development with Pittsburgh CLO. Residencies culminated in private readings hosted by Pittsburgh CLO donors. One of the musicals developed through this program was David Rossmer & Dan Lipton's THE PERFECT MATE which was showcased during SPARKS's Works-in-Progress Night at the CLO Cabaret.

Pittsburgh CLO's dedication to advancing the art of Musical Theater is at the forefront of our mission. In addition to THE PERFECT MATE, CLO's SPARK Festival has launched seven world premiere musicals. As we celebrate the momentous occasion of this latest new musical, we acknowledge the contribution of everyone involved, from the visionary creators, talented cast and crew, and CLO's dedicated staff, to our Patrons and Donors whose support makes new musicals possible. Each note and lyric of each performance are a result of passion, dedication, and a shared commitment to pushing the boundaries of what musical theater can achieve.

Now sit back and relax, as we transport you to the year 2063 for a "10 plus" performance! Enjoy the Show!

DAN LIPTON & DAVID ROSSMER (Book, Music, and Lyrics) wrote the song "They Don't Let You in the Opera if You're a Country Star" for Tony winner Kelli O'Hara, whose Orlando Philharmonic performance notched 7 million views online. It's been performed at Carnegie Hall, in the Library of Congress and with orchestras around the world. Their song "How Do You Get to Carnegie Hall?" was written for O'Hara and Sutton Foster, who premiered it at Carnegie in November 2023 with the New York Pops Orchestra. Current projects include Monopoly, Hasbro's Broadway-bound musical (book by Tony nominee Rick Elice) and The Stork Derby (book by TV legend Janis Hirsch). Rated P, their TV show developed by Kelly Ripa's company, sold to ABC Studios; the Off-Broadway stage version is available from Broadway Licensing. They co-created the Off-Broadway comedy show Don't Quit Your Night Job, writing special material for Huey Lewis, Andrea Martin, Lin-Manuel Miranda, Julianna Margulies and many more. Rossmer co-wrote The Other Josh Cohen, (nominated for 6 Drama Desk Awards and the Lortel for Outstanding Musical). The Griswolds' Broadway Vacation (Seattle's 5th Avenue Theater, heading to New York) and a new musical directed and choreographed by Tony winner Casey Nicholaw. Commissioned by Amazon, his play Alexa, Why Can't You Love Me? is a 5-star Audible release starring Judd Hirsch. Lipton conducted Sting's Broadway musical The Last Ship and The Band's Visit, and is music director for Kelli O'Hara and Mandy Gonzalez. He curated a score of '80s hits as music supervisor and orchestrator of An Officer and a Gentleman (US tour), a stage adaptation of the classic film, and scored the Molly Ringwald film All These Small Moments (Orion Classics). Visit trappedinamusical.com, if you dare!

TIM BRADY (Production Stage Manager) returns for his 15th season for the Pittsburgh CLO Kara Cabaret Series. As an actor, he has appeared in 11 productions of A Musical Christmas Carol and various Summer Season and Pittsburgh CLO Kara Cabaret productions – most recently Xanadu. Other local theaters that Mr. Brady has performed with include The Pittsburgh Pops, Starlight Productions, The New Pittsburgh Jewish Theatre, Stage Right and The Theatre Factory. Mr. Brady was also the managing director of the Conley Inn Dinner Theater in Irwin for 17 years. Tim starred in the Jason Coll television pilot, "Munhall."

MARK FLEISCHER (Executive Producer) serves as the artistic and administrative head of the Pittsburgh CLO producing the company's 6-show summer season, Kara Cabaret Series and its annual production of A Musical Christmas Carol. Mark's passion for developing new musicals led to the creation of CLO's SPARK Festival initiative to develop new small musicals – a program made possible by the CLO's Next Generation Capital Campaign. Since its creation in 2017, the program has contributed to the development of more than 15 new musicals including the world premieres of Up and Away by Kevin Hammonds and Kristin Bair, Game On by Marcus Stevens and David Dabbon, Beyond the Moon by Joe Domencic and Christina McCann, The Double-Threat Trio by Adam Overett and An Untitled New Play by Justin Timberlake (co-produced by Pittsburgh's City Theatre). SPARK has also led to the adaptation and reduction of existing Broadway shows so they can be produced with smaller casts (First Date, Xanadu, and Dirty Rotten Scoundrels). Prior to joining the CLO, Mark was the Producing Artistic Director of Adirondack Theatre Festival from 2007 – 2014 where he was named the Region's Best Artistic Director by Metroland in 2009. From 1993 – 2002 he served as the Managing Artistic Director of Plano Repertory Theatre in suburban Dallas. With a passion for new plays and musicals, he has directed readings and world premiere productions for theatres across the country. He is a Board Member of the National Alliance for Musical Theatre (NAMT), chairing the organization's Educational Resources Committee and has served on its New Musical Festival Committee. Mark is also a member of The Broadway League where he serves on the Intra-Industry committee. He has taught acting, theatre history and arts administration courses at SUNY Empire State College, Columbia College, and Collin College. Mark holds a BA in English Literature and Communication Arts from Austin College and MFA in Directing from the Theatre School at DePaul University.

PITTSBURGH CLO (Producing Company) has been a driving force behind the preservation, creation and promotion of live musical theater since 1946. Founded in the years following WWII as a way to bring Pittsburgh together for a community experience, the company has grown to become one of the largest regional musical theater organizations in the country. CLO produces fresh new productions of Broadway classics, as well as its ongoing commitment to develop new musicals of all sizes. The organization's dedication to musical theater extends beyond its six-show summer series to year-round programming at the 200-seat Greer Cabaret Theater which saw the world premieres of Judge Jackie: Disorder in the Court by Michael Kooman and Christopher Diamond (2014), Up and Away by Kevin Hammonds and Kristin Bair (2018), Game On by David Dabbon and Marcus Stevens (2018), and The Double-Threat Trio by Adam Overett (2019), as well as the musical An Untitled New Play by Justin Timberlake by Matt Schattz (2021 co-production with City Theatre). To support the development of these small cast musicals the CLO launched the SPARK Festival in 2017 which has developed over 15 new musicals through readings, workshops, and world premiere productions. The company's

Gallery of Heroes program has commissioned and produced over 25 world premiere educational musicals designed for in-school presentations integrating musical theatre and classroom science/social studies curriculum. Gallery of Heroes performs in over 100 schools annually. The current GOH show is the Incredibly Innovative Innovators of Pittsburgh. Outside of Pittsburgh, the organization has helped grow the art form through its involvement with 28 Broadway shows (30 Tony Awards[®]) and in 2014 produced the world premiere of An American in Paris on Broadway, where it won 4 Tony Awards® and was the most awarded musical of the 2015 season, and in London's West End. In addition, the company has a commitment to nurturing emerging talent and has been credited with launching the careers of numerous artists such as Billy Porter, Renée Elise Goldsberry, Rob Marshall, Kathleen Marshall, Rob Ashford, Bernadette Peters and Shirley Jones. Pittsburgh CLO's extensive education efforts include a university internship program, New Horizons for students with disabilities, and Creative Vision an in-school residency program at underperforming schools. Other ongoing initiatives include the Pittsburgh CLO Academy of Musical Theater, the Construction Center for the Arts, the acclaimed Gene Kelly Awards for Excellence in High School Musical Theater, and the National High School Musical Theatre Awards (The Jimmys Awards) created in partnership with the Nederlander Organization and The Broadway League. Pittsburgh LEGACY LEGENDS

CLO LEGACY LEGENDS recognizes the dedicated supporters who share a vision for Pittsburgh CLO's future. Their bequests and other planned gifts will have a profound and lasting impact on the artistic quality of the work you see on our stages.

If you would like to join us in building that future, please consider becoming a CLO LEGACY LEGEND by naming Pittsburgh CLO as a beneficiary of your will or trust, IRA or other retirement plan, life insurance policy, life income, or other planned gift. Designating Pittsburgh CLO is not a complicated process and can often be done with a phone call to your investment adviser.

If you have already named CLO in your estate plans – let us know and we will add your name to our CLO LEGACY LEGENDS and include you in special recognition and benefits.

For more information, please contact Wynne Fedele, Director of Development at wfedele@pittsburghCLO.org or call 412-281-3973 x232.

Pittsburgh CLO receives state arts funding support through a grant from the Pennsylvania Council on the Arts, a state agency funded by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and the National Endowment for the Arts, a federal agency.

The Allegheny Regional Asset District, a county agency created to support and finance regional assets, including libraries, parks, cultural groups, sports and civic facilities, and to distribute tax relief to the 128 municipalities of Allegheny County.

The National Endowment for the Arts is a public agency dedicated to supporting excellence in the arts, both new and established; bringing the arts to all Americans; and providing leadership in arts education. Established by Congress in 1965 as an independent agency of the federal government, the Endowment is the nation's largest annual funder of the arts, bringing great art to all 50 states, including rural areas, inner cities, and military bases.

BECOME A PITTSBURGH CLO AMBASSADOR TODAY!

The mission of the Pittsburgh CLO Ambassadors is to support and broaden the reach and diversity of the Pittsburgh CLO and to make musical theatre an active and accessible part of the lives of its members and others through the organization of and participation in a combination of theatrical, social, fundraising, volunteer, and educational events.
