Dear Parents & Friends,

Welcome to CAPA Theater for this special Pittsburgh CLO Academy production of Disney's The Lion King Jr. This marks the Academy's 14th annual spring production – an exciting milestone for our students, faculty, and families.

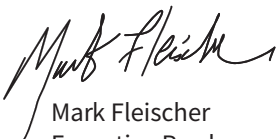

At the Pittsburgh CLO Academy, students receive exceptional training, invaluable performance opportunities, and life skills such as discipline, confidence, and creativity. Whether they pursue careers on stage, behind the scenes, or in other professions, these experiences serve them well. Our alumni have gone on to excel in theater, education, medicine, and beyond.

This production showcases 39 students both on stage and behind-the-scenes guided by our exceptional faculty. Each year, more than 800 Academy students train with working professionals and educators from Pittsburgh CAPA, Carnegie Mellon University, Duquesne University, and Point Park University. Their commitment makes productions like this possible and worthy of applause.

Though Disney's The Lion King Jr. runs for a limited time, you can see our Academy students in upcoming Pittsburgh CLO productions, performing alongside professional artists. Many also continue their training in our summer camps. As a celebration of their hard work, every Lion King Jr. participant will receive one ticket to a Pittsburgh CLO produced show this summer.

Dear Family and Friends,

Welcome to the Pride Lands! I am thrilled to have you join us for the Pittsburgh CLO Academy performance of Disney's The Lion King, Jr. at the CAPA Theater.

For over three decades, the rhythm of Disney's The Lion King has been woven into our cultural DNA. When the production first roared onto Broadway in 1997, it didn't just debut—it redefined the boundaries of musical theater. Today, we have the distinct privilege of watching a new generation take up that mantle. There is a specific kind of magic in hearing these young voices breathe fresh life into a story that has meant so much to so many.

A production like this doesn't just happen; it is forged through discipline, passion, and a fair amount of "no worries" philosophy. I am incredibly proud of our creative team—LaTrea Rembert (Director), Skylar Bunk (Music Director), Elexa Hanner (Choreographer), and Maddy Koropchak (Stage Manager), who have been with the cast throughout the entire process.

Alongside our brilliant designers and the Pittsburgh CLO Education Staff and faculty, this team has cultivated an environment that is as supportive as it is rigorous. Watching this cast rise to the challenge of staging a full-scale musical in a matter of weeks has been nothing short of inspiring.

To our sponsors: your financial support is the Pride Rock of this program. You aren't just funding a show; you are providing a sanctuary where students can feel bold, hopeful, and seen.

I would like to express my sincere gratitude to the Pittsburgh CLO Academy families and friends, for giving generously your time, providing unwavering support and allowing your talented children to participate in this important endeavor.

Now, as the house lights dim, I invite you to "Be Prepared" to witness the "Circle of Life" as you experience these students bring this classic to life!
